President Informs Yale-Harvard Regatta Committee He'll Be on Hand Next Thursday.

GALES FERRY, June 16 .- President Roosevelt will witness the boat races between the Yale and Harvard crews here Thursday. The President has so informed the committee in charge of the regatta and as a result great preparations are being made by the committee to receive him and his party.

The Presidential party will arrive here on the United States despatch boat Dolphin on the morning of the race and vill be given a choice location near the finish at the drawbridge. Both crews spent a quiet Sunday, the Yale crew being given a fifteen-mile sail by Henry Lee Ferguson, of New York, in his yacht the Ava. The crimson crew re-mained at its quarters all day.

gathered in. Bowerman and his bat were in evidence. He lined the ball over Steinfeldt's head and reached first. Matty bounced the ball toward first and reached the base all right, because Peliz fumbled the ball. Brodie rolled out a safe one by Corcoran and every base held a Glant. Bean's little roller to Thielman was Bowerman's undoing at the plate. Smith was the right main in the right place. He knocked a safety to right that scored Matty and Brodie. Smith stole second but he and Bean were left, for Doyle was handed out by Magoca. Two runs.

Fourth Imaing.

Smith's hand pick-up of Peitz's hit was fine and, of course, the Heinie was a goner. By grace of the umplier's poor judgment Crawford got a walk and a minute later scored on Beck's hot liner for two bases. Magoon rapped out a hit good for three bases that scored Beck. When Smith threw wide to Lauder Magoon completed the circuit of bases. Corcoran's lift tumbled to Hendricks and Jones took Steinfeldt's boost. Three runs.

Hoy took Lauder's fly. Jones drove a safety to left. Hendricks's knock to Magoon was Jones's finish at second. Bowerman lined a fly into Crawford's hands. No runs.

Fifth Inning.

Bergen was put on the retired list with Smith's ald. The Glants' captain stift to bone stored and Matty and Brodie rolled out a scored and was the part of the same Glant held onto Pietz's lift when it fell. No runs.

Corcoran made a star stop of Jones'n rap, but could not recover in time to extreme the clink of the fell. No runs.

August Belmont has decided upon a name for the distinguished half sister of the famous Hamburg, which he bought last fall from among the yearlings offered at the sale of thorough-breds owned by the late Marcus Daly. The filly will be known as Lady Gallantry. As a yearling the animal was bought by the President of the Jockey Club for £50,000. She was sent to the Nursery Stud, where she has taken on fully three hundred pounds and is now regarded as a perfect show filly.

Young Corbett, who will meet Dave Sullivan perfect show filly.

During the meeting at Gravesend 1,070 horses started in the 111 races, and this means about sine and two-thirds to a race, as against 810 June 20 in Denver, is varying his training methods somewhat for the mill. He is taking on any one who appears at his quarters for from three to ten rounds. Sullivan is working harder than ever before, as he believes Corbett is not the man he was when he met McGovern. sine and two-thirds to a race, as against 810 starting in the 108 races of last spring, which represented about seven and one-half to a race, an increase of over twenty-five per cent. Of the first choices 42 per cent. won, which is away above the normal figure for the meeting. Twenty second choices gained brackets, and twelve third choices were successful.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 16 .- A. Hans n has started in his attempt to establish a 1,000-mile motor bleycle record. The first hundred miles were covered in 4.27, the second in 4.26 the third in 6.07. The slow time in the third century was due to crowded boulevards. While taking a stop at 9 o'clock last evening Hanson expressed the expectation of completing half the ride by 6 o'clock in the morning. The L000 miles will be made in about fifty-five hours. Hanson expects to accomplish the entire ride without taking any sleen.

Heine Peltz seems to be the Reds' star better.

Roy Evans is surely in bad favor with Dame Fortune. To pitch suon a fine game as he did on Saturday and to lose it was real hard luck. Seven hits were all the Heinies got, and only one base on balls dealt them. Then, too, seven were atruck out.

Heine has been hitting the ball good and hard since he has been here, and his batting average must have grown a bit.

Cincinnati fane do not think so much of Harry Steinfeldt as a batter. "Steinfeldt steinfeldted to Jones." was an expression of a critic, but the fellow is all right and never is found asleep at his post.

It was Jimmy Jones's day off on Saturday. He did not get a hit and scored only one putout. But just watch Jimmy this week. He expects to reach the .500 mark among the batters.

Jack Doyle is a big favorite with the Pole Grounds fans these days. Jack is entitled to be, too, for he is playing the best game of his life.
